

Juris Go® Release Notes Version 2023 R1

Juris Go 2023 R1 is here and has new features and enhancements based on general usability and your feedback.

Our goal is to remove the hassle of timekeeping by delivering incremental releases that ensure Juris Go is the best timekeeping and expense capturing tool for your firm by eliminating steps, reducing the number of taps required for an operation, and matching the way timekeepers and firm staff like to work.

NEW FEATURES

- Code fields such as Client and Matter can now be entered manually.
 - To enable this feature, tap the Use Local Data slider in Settings.
 - Tap the left side of the field in any Time or Expense entry and enter the full name or code.
 - Tap Save or Send to Juris/Send to Juris Suite to validate the fields. A popup will notify you if corrections are needed. The invalid fields in the entry will be highlighted in red.
- You can now send Time and Expense entries directly to Juris Core.
 - The Administrator clicks Allow users to select Send to Juris in Juris Go Manager to authorize this feature in Juris Go.
 - After the Administrator grants access within Juris Go Manager, tap the Send to Juris slider in Settings to activate this feature.

KNOWN ISSUES

There are no known issues for this release.

LexisNexis, Juris, Juris Suite, and the Knowledge Burst logo are registered trademarks of RELX Inc. Microsoft and Windows are registered trademarks of Microsoft Corporation. Other products and services may be trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective companies. Release Date April 4, 2023.

Copyright 2023 LexisNexis. All rights reserved.